This packet of materials is to provide you with assistance in handling your own court case to determine parentage (paternity), and at the same time resolve custody, time-sharing and child support issues between persons who are not married and have a child or children together.

The materials on handling your own court case are provided for persons who are representing themselves without an attorney. If at all possible, you should have an attorney for your case. The system is quite complicated, and if you are proceeding without an attorney, you must do everything just as a lawyer would.

TIME REQUIRED. One of the first questions people ask is, "How long is it going to take me to get this done?" The answer depends on how well you and the other parent can work together to resolve the issues. If you work out the different things that have to be included, most people can finish in a month or two. If you cannot agree, then you have to get hearings set on the Judge's trial calendar, and that usually takes several weeks or months.

Information about the Materials

1. In addition to these General Instructions, we have prepared forms with instruction pages attached that explain each blank or choice. Our forms include usual provisions but cannot include everything that might fit every situation. The forms are just forms and are only a guide. In several places the forms have suggestions for 2 or 3 ways that section can be written. Most of the forms can be changed so they will fit your special situation. Some parts are required to be a certain way, and we will try to point these requirements out as we describe the different sections.
2. The Courts prefer TYPED papers. If at all possible, use these forms as a guide, and TYPE your papers, leaving out the parts of the form that do not apply to you. The General Instructions for completing a Petition include a sample of how the first page looks when it is ready to take to the Clerk for filing.

3. This packet gives general information about preparing and filing the papers you will need to resolve custody, time-sharing (visitation) and child support issues through Court proceedings. You will have to read every word in the forms and in the instructions carefully and tailor your papers to fit your own fact situation.
4. We will sometimes refer to court rules, court cases or the Statutes (laws) of New Mexico. Law libraries in the different counties will have these rules or laws. In Santa Fe you can use the law library at the Supreme Court. In Albuquerque there is a law library in the Law School at the University of New Mexico.
5. There are different sets of instructions and forms for different stages of a case. For example, there are materials that discuss the different ways of "serving" (giving formal notice of the divorce or custody action) the other party. There are also separate forms and instructions for getting hearings scheduled. We are developing forms and instructions for usual or common needs, but cannot provide a form for every problem you might have.

Steps in filing a Parentage case:

1. If you are filing a contested case (parties do not agree on all issues), you are to prepare a Petition to Establish Parentage, Determine Custody and Time-Sharing, and Assess Child Support and a Summons. Prepare an original set of documents plus two (2) sets of copies of each form. Documents which number more than one page must be stapled separately. Sort the documents according to title, place the original on top of its copy and then paper clip them together. For example: Place the original Petition on top of the stapled copies and then paper clip them together. Repeat the same for the Summons. In addition, the Court requires a completed Domestic Relations Information Sheet at the time of filing.
2. If you are filing an uncontested case (parties agree on all issues), you are to prepare the following forms in the Parentage Packet: Petition to Establish Parentage, Determine Custody and Time-Sharing, and Assess Child Support - requires Petitioner's signature, Parenting Plan - requires both parties' signatures, Worksheet (A or B) - requires both parties' signatures, Order Establishing Parentage, Determining Custody and Time-Sharing, and Assess Child Support - requires both parties' signatures.

Prepare an original set of documents plus two (2) sets of copies of each form. Staple each document separately. Sort the documents according to title, place the original of each form on top of its copy and then paper clip them together. For example: Place the original Petition on top of the stapled copies and then paper clip them together. Repeat the same for the remaining forms. In addition, the Court requires a completed Domestic Relations Information Sheet at the time of filing.

3. Submit your documents for filing to the Domestic Relations Division, Room 240, second floor, of the Bernalillo County Courthouse, at 400 Lomas Blvd. NW between the hours of 10:00 A.M. - 2:00 P.M., Monday through Friday. Contact the division at 841-7421 prior to filing to confirm hours. There is a required filing fee of $137.00. Cash, money order or cashier's check are acceptable forms of payments. Personal checks and credit cards are not accepted.

4. When you file your documents, the case will be randomly assigned a judge through the computer and given a case number. The clerk will file the original Petition and endorse stamp the copies. The original Summons is issued by the Clerk.
5. If this case is contested, proceed to step 6. If this case is uncontested, proceed to step 8.
6. In a contested case, once the initial filing process is complete, it is your responsibility to have the Respondent served. (See Service of Process instructions in packet).
  - a. The Respondent must be served with the following documents:
    - i. ENDORSED copy of the Petition
    - ii. COPY of the Summons
  - b. After the Respondent has been served, the process server or Deputy Sheriff will complete the reverse side of the original Summons (a Return of Service). The Sheriff's Department will return this document to you by mail. If you obtain the services of a private process server, you can ask for the Return of Service to be returned to you. It is IMPORTANT to file the completed return of service because it shows proof that the Respondent was served.
7. After service, the Respondent has thirty (30) days after service to file a Response to the Court. (He or she has until 5:00 P.M. on the 30th day to respond.) If the Respondent fails to file a response, you may be able to obtain a judgment by default by submitting additional documents to the court for filing. You may return to the Center for Self Help and Dispute Resolution for additional forms and information.
8. In an uncontested case, after you have filed your documents in Domestic Relations Division, the documents will be forwarded to the assigned Judge for review. Return to the Domestic Relations Clerks Office in ten (10) business days to pick up your Order and all other documents. The Court may sign the Order without further notice, or it may order you and the other parent to appear for a hearing. If the Order has been approved and signed by the Judge, the Clerk will file your originals and endorse your copies. Your endorsed copies are a record that your case is final.

Parentage Petition and Order: Summary of Applicable Law

A. Jurisdiction

The statutes that give the court "jurisdiction" (authority to do something) in cases where parents of children were not married are 40-11-1 to 40-11-23 NMSA 1978. Basically, the District Court of New Mexico has jurisdiction to determine custody if the child is less than 6 months old and was born in New Mexico or, if older than 6 months, the child has lived in New Mexico for at least the past 6 months.

In addition to the 6 month residency requirement, you must decide which County to file in. This is called "venue." The case is filed in the County in which one of the parties resides. If one parent lives in a different county, then venue is often decided to be the County in which the children reside permanently or indefinitely.

Generally, New Mexico can determine child custody if the child has lived in New Mexico for at least 6 consecutive months and is now residing in New Mexico. If the child has been living in New Mexico but has been removed from New Mexico by a person claiming custody, and the removal was less than 6 months ago, then New Mexico may still determine custody issues where one parent is still in New Mexico. (See 40-10-2 through 40-10-4 in the statutes.) One purpose of this law is to avoid abductions or removal of children to another state.

If the child has not lived in New Mexico for at least the last six months, then New Mexico courts might not be able to determine child custody issues. There are emergency situations and some exceptions to the rules about the child living in New Mexico for the past six months.

It is important to be absolutely truthful in the facts stated in the Petition, since it is submitted under oath. Do not "fudge" on the residence requirements or the statements about other cases which concern your child(ren). Jurisdiction MUST be exactly right or the Orders the Judge enters could be invalid and everything would have to be re-done at a later time.

B. Custody of Children

New Mexico law assumes that "joint custody" is best for children. Joint custody means that both parents spend time with the children and are involved with them. Joint custody DOES NOT necessarily mean equal time, where the children spend half their time with one parent and half their time with the other. Equal time-sharing is possible in joint custody, but other arrangements are possible as well. The Judge may not order 50-50 custody unless a counselor or a psychologist recommends such an arrangement.

If you feel that joint custody will not work, or if you need help in determining time-sharing (visitation) arrangement or schedule, then you should ask the court for a referral to mediation or Court Clinic. There are separate forms for you to prepare to get into the mediation or Court Clinic services. It may be done automatically by the Judge or Clerk in some cases.

C. Child Support

When the time-sharing (visitation) schedule with the child(ren) is known, then the amount of child support can be determined, based on the Child Support Guidelines which are part of the New Mexico Statutes. The Guidelines and the Worksheets are part of the materials available so that the child support amount can be calculated. The Child Support Worksheet is required to be attached to the final papers when the Decree and other final documents are submitted to the Judge for approval.

D. Property and Debts

Sometimes people who are not married live together, have children together and also have bought property or incurred debts together. The community property laws about how to divide up property DO NOT apply to persons who are not married. You cannot start a Common law marriage in New Mexico by living together. New Mexico will recognize a valid common law marriage from another state.

Although it is possible to include issues of property and debt division in your Petition, our materials do not include any suggestions for how to do this. There are so many different ways for people to have bought property together that we cannot include any kind of a form paragraph to cover property and debt division between unmarried persons.

New Mexico case law [see Merrill v. Davis, 673 P2d 1285, 100 NM 552 (1983)], provides that if you have a definite agreement, and you can prove how you agreed the property would be split if you separate, the courts can follow the agreement.

If there is no provable agreement, and you are arguing about property which is in one person's name, it is difficult (but not always impossible) to get a property division between unmarried persons through the New Mexico courts.

Other Pleadings

IN ADDITION to the Petition, you will need to do a SUMMONS and have it with you when you file the Petition.

Other commonly needed paperwork that you may need include:

- The court has mediation or counseling services that may assist you in determining custody and time-sharing issues. There are additional forms for being referred to that service.
- Many people use a Parenting Plan to set out the agreement they reach regarding custody and a time-sharing (visitation) schedule.
- Child support is calculated using Worksheet A or Worksheet B (which worksheet is used depends on the time-sharing schedule you have reached). This calculation is done and the Worksheet attached when you submit an Order to the Judge for signing.
- An Order must be prepared for presenting to the Judge to sign at the end of the case, which provides a written record of the issues resolved in the case.
- If the Child Support Enforcement Division is going to be processing the child support payments, you must secure a file number for including in the Order

D. Request to limit access to information.

(Optional - complete only if applicable)

[ ] The [petitioner] [respondent] has reason to fear domestic violence or child abuse. For this reason, please limit access to information about the [petitioner] [respondent] in the Child Support & Paternity Case Registry to the extent possible.<sup>4</sup> The [petitioner] [respondent] realizes that this request may make it more difficult to assist in collecting child support. The [petitioner] [respondent] understands that the other party and the public might still view information about this case under some circumstances.

I affirm that this request is legitimately made and not designed to harass or intimidate the other party or mislead the court.

END OF INFORMATION SHEET

USE NOTE

1. The Domestic Relations Information Sheet is not required in domestic violence, commitment, guardianship, probate, or adoption actions; or if you are filing a pleading that does not change or add to the first pleading.

In uncontested domestic relations matters, the parties may submit one Information Sheet with the initial pleading, and the documents need not be served.

In all other contested domestic relations cases each attorney representing a petitioner, or the petitioner proceeding pro se, in a contested case must submit the Information Sheet and serve a blank copy of the Information Sheet on the respondent. Respondents must submit the completed Information Sheet with their first responsive pleading.

The information submitted on these forms does not replace or supplement the filing and service of pleadings or other papers required by law. These forms, approved by the Supreme Court of New Mexico, are required to initiate domestic relations cases and are used by the courts for case management.

Forms are available from the court clerks and the NMRA. Electronic copies may be obtained from the Supreme Court's internet site (www.supremecourt.nm.org) and New Mexico Law on Disc. If rekeying the form it must appear substantially in the same format as the Supreme Court approved form. Type or print only. If using a word processing system, please print your answers in bold.

2. Unless there are more than four children, the Information Sheet is to be submitted on a single page. The clerk will key-enter the information on the Information Sheet. The Information Sheet will not be filed in the court file.

3. If the party has more than one social security number, please include it. Pursuant to Sections 27-1-10 and 27-1-11 NMSA 1978 and federal law, each party must submit the social security number of each party as well as the name, date of birth and social security number for each minor child. This information will be provided to the State Case Registry and, upon request, to child support enforcement agencies. The parties' addresses and social security numbers are also used to accurately identify and track court users, obtain feedback from court users on a periodic basis and to issue process in contempt proceedings. Addresses provided on this page will not be made a part of the public record unless that party is or becomes self represented.

4. The Child Support & Paternity Case Registry is a required, nationwide database of child support and paternity orders. Access to registry information is strictly limited to court and child support administrative personnel. Requesting that your registry information be "nondisclosed" does not prevent authorized parties from reviewing the information. Rather, it alerts courts and child support administrative personnel to act with caution when viewing your information. However, be aware that requesting "nondisclosure" of registry information does not limit access to your official district court case file which is a public record. If you are concerned about such access, ask your lawyer, or the court clerk if you do not have a lawyer, about ways in which the court may restrict access to your court file.

[Provisionally approved as 4-211 NMRA, effective November 1, 1999 until November 1, 2000; approved, as amended, effective November 1, 2000; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 13-8300-010, effective for all pleadings and papers filed on or after May 31, 2013, in all cases pending or filed on or after May 31, 2013; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 14-8300-011, effective for all cases filed on or after December 31, 2014.]

Petitioner,

DATE: _____

PARENTING PLAN DEVELOPED AND AGREED TO BY

_____ AND _____ FOR THEIR CHILDREN:

1. Legal Custody: We agree to share joint legal custody of our child(ren); that is, neither of us will unilaterally make a major change affecting our child(ren) in the areas of religion, residence, non-emergency medical or dental care, education or major recreational activities. Before such a decision is made, we will discuss the matter, and both of us must agree. If we cannot agree, our disagreement will be resolved by the methods chosen in Section 8, below. Until agreement or resolution, no change will be made.

2. The Child(ren)'s Wishes: We agree that our child(ren)'s wishes should and must be considered when we make decisions about the child(ren). How much weight we will give a child's wishes will depend on the age of the child and the nature of the decision. We will not ever ask a child to choose between us, and we will not burden a child with any decision that is inappropriate for his/her age and development.

3. Time Sharing: We will share time with the child(ren) as we agree from time to time. In the event we can't agree, the schedule will be as follows: (Note: It is often preferable to have a flexible arrangement, as you agree on a day-by-day basis. However, you must have a specific plan which is to be followed it or when a disagreement occurs.)

_____
_____

B. Weekends: _____

Weekends begin at _____ o'clock (Friday) (Saturday) and end at _____ o'clock (Sunday) (Monday), unless Monday is a legal holiday, in which case the weekend ends at _____ o'clock (Monday) (Tuesday): _____

_____ (Optional): We have attached a calendar for the year 20__ to this plan, and have marked in red the days the child(ren) will spend with mother and blue the days the child(ren) will spend with father. "Days" begin at _____ o'clock and end at _____ o'clock.

C. Vacations/Summer: Each parent will have uninterrupted time with the child(ren) for _____ weeks each (year) (summer), if that parent gives the other at least _____ days' notice.

(Option for young children): Until the (youngest) child reaches age _____, uninterrupted vacation/summer time with each parent is limited to _____ weeks(s).

Between the ages of _____ and _____, that time shall be _____ weeks; after reaching age _____ summer/vacation time will be _____ weeks.

D. Holidays: Regardless of the day of the week, the child(ren) will spend:

- (1) Mother's Day and mother's birthday with mother;
- (2) Father's Day and father's birthday with father;
- (3) Child(ren)s' birthday with _____ in even-numbered years and with _____ in odd-numbered years. The child(ren) will spend Thanksgiving from _____ until _____ with _____ in even-numbered years and with _____ in odd-numbered years. The children will spend the school-scheduled Spring Break with _____ in even-numbered years and with _____ in odd-numbered years. The child(ren) will spend the first half of the Christmas school holiday with _____ in even-numbered years and with _____ in odd-numbered years while the last half of the Christmas school holiday will be spent the reverse of the first half.

E. Telephone and Mail: We agree that the child(ren) have a right to place phone calls to and receive letters and packages, without interference from the other parent.

F. Transportation: We will divide the responsibility for getting the children to and from each other's house, day care, school, etc., as follows: _____

---

G. (Check One): Trial Period or Permanent Plan:

_____ We have not yet tried this time sharing schedule, so we agree that we will review this plan in _____ days, and at that time we will make any changes we agree on. If we cannot agree on changes, we will resolve our dispute by using the method set forth in Section 8, below. If we litigate, a "material change in circumstances" will not have to be proved in order to change this schedule.

OR

_____ We have already tried this time sharing schedule, and we intend it to be fairly permanent. We recognize, however, that as our child(ren) grow(s) and our own lives change, it may be necessary to change the schedule from time to time. This would be a major change that we have to discuss and agree on, and if necessary we will follow the dispute resolution procedures set forth in Section 8 below.

H. Changes: Each of us may ask the other for exceptions to this schedule from time to time, but we understand that the other parent has the right to say "No," and we will not argue about it nor criticize the other parent's decision to the child.

4. The Status Quo - What we now have:

A. Residence: _____ (city and state only)

B. Religion: _____

C. Doctor: Name: _____

Address: _____

We agree that neither of us will remove, cause to be removed, or permit removal of the child(ren) from the State of New Mexico, except for temporary visits which do not interfere with the time-sharing schedule, without the written consent of the other parent, or resolution of the dispute by the method set forth in Section 8, below.

5. Grandparents and Other Relatives: We agree that the child(ren)'s relationship(s) with grandparents and other extended family members are important, and that it is beneficial for the child(ren) to spend time with our extended families as long as the members of those families do not try to alienate the child(ren) from one of us. In order to encourage the continuation of good relationships between our extended families and the child(ren), we agree to the following extended family visitation and communication: _____
_____

6. Step-parents, Step-children, Step-siblings: We agree that deep and important relationships between step-relatives can develop, and that it would not be in our child(ren)'s best interests to cut off those relationships. We therefore agree on the following visitation and communication for step-relatives: _____

7. Emergencies: We agree that in case of a medical emergency the parent with that period of responsibility will contact the other parent concerning treatment of the child, if possible. If the absent parent cannot be reached, any decision for emergency medical treatment will be made in the best interest of the child by the available parent.

8. Dispute Resolution:

A. Written Proposals: _____ (Optional - Please initial if desired.) We agree that if either of us wishes to permanently change the time-sharing plan (Section 3) or one or more aspects of the status quo (Section 4), the one who wishes the change will give to the other a written change proposal which will include what (s)he want to change and why, and which will provide enough information so the other will be able to investigate. For example, the change proposal will include necessary names, addresses and phone numbers and a reasonable time limit for responding.

We agree that the parent who receives the change proposal will investigate the proposed change and will respond in a reasonable time, in writing. If one of us does not agree to the proposed change, (s)he must say why, and, when appropriate, make a counter proposal, also in writing.

AND/OR

B. Oral Discussion: _____ We will discuss all major changes in the child(ren)'s life/lives in order to try to reach agreement.

C. If we cannot agree to the proposed change, we agree that no change will be made until we: _____ participate in couple and/or family counseling to try to reach agreement (optional: with _____ as counselor);

AND/OR

_____ participate in conciliation or mediation to try to reach agreement (optional: with _____ as mediator);

AND/OR

_____ submit the matter to _____ for arbitration

(Note: parents must obtain the consent of the proposed arbitrator in order to choose this option).

We agree that the arbitrator's decision (a) _____ will be binding, or (b) _____ is not permanently binding, but will be followed by us until and unless the Court orders otherwise.

AND/OR

_____ allocate ultimate responsibility to (state mother or father):

_____ for religious decisions

_____ for residence decisions

_____ for medical decisions

_____ for education decisions

_____ for recreations decisions; or

AND/OR

_____ submit the matter to the District Court, which may refer the matter to a special master, or which may terminate joint custody, among other resolutions.

We will pay any cost involved in our method of dispute resolution (except litigation) as follows: _____ % paid by Mother; _____ % paid by Father. We agree that we will use the above methods of dispute resolution and neither parent will withhold financial support or access to the child(ren) before, during or after dispute resolution.

NOTE TO PARENTS: If more than one method of dispute resolution is desired, number the choices in order (#1 for first method to be used, #2 for second method, etc.)

9. General:

A. We both agree to be actively involved in the major decisions and legal responsibilities of our child(ren).

B. We agree to communicate and be flexible about the needs of the child(ren), especially as those needs change due to a child's growth and development.

C. We agree to each be supportive of the child(ren)'s relationship with the other parent and positive about that relationship. Each of us will give permission to the child(ren) to enjoy the relationship with the other parent and neither of us will interfere with the parent-child relationship with the other.

D. We agree that neither of us will align the child(ren) with him or her against the other parent or the other parent's family.

E. We agree that each of us is responsible to learn for him(her)self the child(ren)'s school functions, parent/teacher meetings and recreational activities. In other words, neither of us is responsible to inform the other of such matters.

USE NOTE

This form may include provisions that the parents may not want. This is just a suggested plan. The only provision that is legally required is time-sharing (See Section 3). That is, the parents must specify when the children are to be with each parent, in the event a disagreement arises.

If the parents do not wish a particular provision, just cross it out and initial where you crossed it out.

This parenting plan has not been approved by any New Mexico appellate court. There have been no appellate cases involving such parenting plans as yet and there may not be for many years. It is possible that some provisions may in the future be found invalid, but we decided it was important to help parents and lawyers by providing a suggested plan now. Suggestions for improvement are welcome. Mail to Domestic Relations Clerk, P. O. Box 488, Albuquerque , NM 87103.

40-4-11.1. Child support; guidelines.

A. In any action to establish or modify child support, the child support guidelines as set forth in this section shall be applied to determine the child support due and shall be a rebuttable presumption for the amount of such child support. Every decree or judgment or stipulation of child support that deviates from the guideline amount shall contain a statement of the reasons for the deviation.

B. The purposes of the child support guidelines are to:

- (1) establish as state policy an adequate standard of support for children, subject to the ability of parents to pay;
- (2) make awards more equitable by ensuring more consistent treatment of persons in similar circumstances; and
- (3) improve the efficiency of the court process by promoting settlements and giving courts and the parties guidance in establishing levels of awards.

C. For purposes of the guidelines specified in this section:

(1) "income" means actual gross income of a parent if employed to full capacity or potential income if unemployed or underemployed. The gross income of a parent means only the income and earnings of that parent and not the income of subsequent spouses, notwithstanding the community nature of both incomes after remarriage; and

(2) "gross income" includes income from any source and includes but is not limited to income from salaries, wages, tips, commissions, bonuses, dividends, severance pay, pensions, interest, trust income, annuities, capital gains, social security benefits, workers' compensation benefits, unemployment insurance benefits, disability insurance benefits, significant in-kind benefits that reduce personal living expenses, prizes and alimony or maintenance received, provided:

(a) "gross income" shall not include benefits received from 1) means-tested public assistance programs, including but not limited to, temporary assistance for needy families, supplemental security income and general assistance; 2) the earnings or public assistance benefits of a child who is the subject of a child support award; or child support received by a parent for the support of other children;

(b) for income from self-employment, rent, royalties, proprietorship of a business or joint ownership of a partnership or closely held corporation, "gross income" means gross receipts minus ordinary and necessary expenses required to produce such income, but ordinary and necessary expenses do not include expenses determined by the court to be inappropriate for purposes of calculating child support;

(c) "gross income" shall not include the amount of alimony payments actually paid in compliance with a court order;

(d) "gross income" shall not include the amount of child support actually paid by a parent in compliance with a court order for the support of prior children; and

(e) "gross income" shall not include a reasonable amount for a parent's obligation to support prior children who are in that parent's custody. A duty to support subsequent children is not ordinarily a basis for reducing support owed to children of the parties but may be a defense to a child support increase for the children of the parties. In raising such a defense, a party may use Table A as set forth in Subsection M of this section to calculate the support for the subsequent children.

D. If a Court finds that a parent has willfully failed to obtain or maintain appropriate employment or is willfully underemployed, the court may impute to that parent and income equal to that parent's earning and employment potential.

(1) The following criteria shall be used:

- (a) availability of employment opportunities for the parent;
- (b) the parent's employment history;
- (c) the parent's income history;
- (d) the parent's job skills;
- (e) the parent's education;

- (f) the parent's age and health;
- (g) the parent's history of convictions and incarceration; and
- (h) the parent's ability to obtain or maintain employment due to providing care for a child of the parties who is under the age of six or is disabled.

(2) Minimum wage may be imputed if a parent has no recent employment or earnings history and that parent has the capacity to earn minimum wage. The minimum wage to be imputed to that parent is the prevailing minimum wage in the locality where that parent resides.

E. Income may not be imputed to a parent if the parent is incarcerated for a period of one hundred and eighty days or longer. Incarceration is not considered a voluntary unemployment.

F. As used in this section:

(1) "children of the parties" means the natural or adopted child or children of the parties to the action before the court but shall not include the natural or adopted child or children of only one of the parties;

(2) "basic visitation" means a custody arrangement whereby one parent has physical custody and the other parent has visitation with the children of the parties less than thirty-five percent of the time. Such arrangements can exist where the parties share responsibilities pursuant to Section 40-4-9.1 NMSA 1978; and

(3) "shared responsibility" means a custody arrangement whereby each parent provides a suitable home for the children of the parties, when the children of the parties spend at least thirty-five percent of the year in each home and the parents significantly share the duties, responsibilities and expenses of parenting.

G. The basic child support obligation shall be calculated based on the combined income of both parents and shall be paid by them proportionately pursuant to Subsection L of this section.

H. Physical custody adjustments shall be made as follows:

(1) for basic visitation situations, the basic child support obligation shall be calculated using the basic child support schedule, Worksheet A and instructions contained in Subsection L of this section. The court may provide for a partial abatement of child support for visitations of one month or longer; and

(2) for shared responsibility arrangements, the basic child support obligation shall be calculated using the basic child support schedule, Worksheet B and instructions contained in Subsection L of this section.

I. In shared responsibility situations, each parent retains the percentage of the basic support obligation equal to the number of twenty-four-hour days of responsibility spent by each child with each respective parent divided by three hundred sixty-five.

J. The cost of providing medical and dental insurance for the children of the parties and the net reasonable child-care costs incurred on behalf of these children due to employment or job search of either parent shall be paid by each parent in proportion to that parent's income, in addition to the basic obligation.

K. The child support may also include the payment of the following expenses not covered by the basic child support obligation:

(1) any extraordinary medical, dental and counseling expenses incurred on behalf of the children of the parties. Such extraordinary expenses are uninsured expenses in excess of one hundred dollars ($100) per child per year;

(2) any extraordinary educational expenses for children of the parties; and

(3) transportation and communication expenses necessary for long distance visitation or time sharing.

L. Whenever application of the child support guidelines set forth in this section requires a person to pay to another person more than forty percent of the paying person's gross income for a single child support obligation for current support, there shall be a presumption of a substantial hardship, justifying a deviation from the guidelines.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR WORKSHEET A

Line 1. Gross monthly income:

Includes all income, except TANF, food stamps and supplemental security income. If a parent pays child support by court order to other children, subtract from gross income. Use current income if steady. If income varies a lot from month to month, use an average of the last twelve months, if available, or last year's income tax return. Add both parents' gross incomes and put total under the combined column.

Line 2. Percentage of Combined Income:

Divide each parent's income by combined income to get that parent's percentage of combined income.

Lines 3 and 4. Basic Support:

Fill in number of children on worksheet (Line 3). Round combined income to nearest fifty dollars ($50.00). Look at the basic child support schedule. In the far left-hand column of the basic child support schedule, find the rounded combined income figure. Read across to the column with the correct number of children. Enter that amount on Line 4.

Line 5. Children's Health and Dental Insurance Premium:

Enter the cost paid by a parent for covering these children with medical and dental insurance under that parent's column on Line 5. Add costs paid by each parent and enter under the combined column on Line 5.

Line 6. Work-Related Child Care:

Enter the cost paid by each parent for work-related child care. If the cost varies (for example, between school year and summer), take the total yearly cost and divide by twelve. Enter each parent's figure in that parent's column on Line 6. Add the cost for both parents and enter in the combined column on Line 6.

Line 7. Additional Expenses:

Enter the amounts paid by each parent for additional expenses provided by Subsection I of this section on Line 7. Add the cost for both parents and enter in the combined column on Line 7.

Line 8. Total Support:

Total the basic support amount from Line 4 in the combined column with the combined column on Lines 5, 6 and 7 and enter the totals in combined column on Line 8.

Line 9. Each Parent's Obligation:

Multiply the total child support amount on Line 8 by each parent's percentage share on Line 2, and enter each parent's dollar share under that parent's column on Line 9.

Line 10. Total Support:

Enter the total amount shown for each parent on Line 8 beside the "minus" marks on Line 10.

Line 11. Each Parent's Net Obligation:

For each parent, subtract the amount on Line 10 from the amount on Line 9. Enter the difference for each parent in that parent's column on Line 11. The amount in the box "other parent" is what that parent pays to the custodial parent each month. Do not subtract the amount on the custodial parent's Line 11 from the amount in the other parent's box. The custodial parent is presumed to use the amount in that parent's column on Line 11 for the children.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR WORKSHEET B

Part 1 - Basic Support:

Line 1. Gross Monthly Income:

Includes all income, except TANF, food stamps and supplemental security income. See text for allowed deductions from income. Use current income if steady. If income varies a lot from month to month, use an average of the last twelve months, if available, or last year's income tax return. Add both parents' gross incomes and put total under the combined column.

Line 2. Percentage of Combined Income:

Divide each parent's income by combined income to get that parent's percentage of combined income.

Lines 3 and 4. Basic Support:

Fill in the number of children on the worksheet (Line 3). Round combined income to nearest fifty dollars ($50.00). Look at the basic child support schedule. In the far left-hand column of that schedule, find the rounded combined income figure. Read across to the column with the correct number of children. Enter that amount on Line 4.

Line 5. Shared Responsibility Basic Obligation:

Multiply the basic obligation on Line 4 by 1.5.

Line 6. Each Parent's Share:

Multiply the support amount on Line 5 by each parent's percentage share on Line 2, and enter each parent's dollar share under that parent's column on Line 6.

Line 7. Each Parent's Time of Care for Children:

Enter the number of twenty-four-hour days of responsibility that each parent has each child in a year according to the parenting plan.

Line 8. Percentage of Twenty-Four-Hour Days With Each Parent:

Divide each parent's number of twenty-four-hour days (Line 7) by three hundred sixty-five to obtain a percentage.

Line 9. Amount Retained:

Under shared responsibility arrangements, each parent retains the percentage of the basic support obligation equal to the number of twenty-four-hour days of responsibility spent by each child with each respective parent divided by three hundred sixty-five. Multiply each parent's share of basic support (Line 6) by the percentage in that parent's Line 8 and enter the result on that parent's Line 9. This is the amount that each parent retains to pay the children's expenses during that parent's periods of responsibility.

Line 10. Each Parent's Basic Obligation:

Subtract the amount retained by each parent for direct expenses (Line 9) from that parent's share (Line 6) and enter the difference on that parent's Line 10.

Line 11. Amount Transferred for Basic Support:

In shared responsibility situations, both parents are entitled not only to retain money for direct expenses but also to receive contributions from the other parent toward those expenses. Therefore, subtract the smaller amount on Line 10 from the larger amount on Line 10 to arrive at a net amount transferred for basic support.

Part 2 - Additional Payments:

Line 12. Children's Health and Dental Insurance Premium:

Enter the cost paid by a parent for covering these children with medical and dental insurance under that parent's column on Line 12. Add costs paid by each parent and enter under the combined column on Line 12.

Line 13. Work-Related Child Care:

Enter the cost paid by each parent for work-related child care. If the cost varies (for example, between school year and summer), take the total yearly cost and divide by twelve. Enter each parent's figure in that parent's column on Line 13. Add the cost for both parents and enter in combined column on Line 13.

Line 14. Additional Expenses:

Enter the cost paid by each parent for additional expenses provided by Subsection I of this section on Line 14.

Line 15. Total Additional Payments:

For each parent, total the amount paid by that parent for insurance, child care and additional expenses (Lines 12, 13 and 14). Enter the total in that parent's column on Line 15 and the total of both parents' expenses under the combined column on Line 15.

Line 16. Each Parent's Obligation:

Multiply the total additional payments (combined column on Line 15) by each parent's percentage share of income on Line 2, and enter each parent's dollar share of the additional payments on that parent's Line 16.

Line 17. Amount Transferred:

Subtract each parent's obligation for additional expenses (that parent's Line 16) from the total additional payments made by that parent (that parent's Line 15). The parent with a "minus" figure pays the other parent the amount on Line 17.

Part 3 - Net Amount Transferred:

Line 18. Combine Lines 11 and 17:

Combine the amount owed by one parent to the other for basic support (Line 11) and the amount owed by one parent to the other for additional payments (Line 17). If the same parent owes for both obligations, add Lines 11 and 17, and enter the total on Line 18. If one parent owes for basic support and the other owes for additional payments, subtract the smaller amount from the larger and enter on Line 18. Fill in the blanks by stating which parent pays and which parent receives the net amount transferred.

History: 1978 Comp., § 40-4-11.1, enacted by Laws 1988, ch. 87, § 2; 1991, ch. 206, § 1; 1995, ch. 142, § 1; 2008, ch. 48, § 1.
